'SEE YOURSELF IN LANCASTER' MURALS

107 W. Dunlap Street (in the Cultural Arts District)

'Paws on Parade' Public Art Tourism Project by the Lancaster County Council of the Arts is modeled after very successful public art exhibits in which large fiberglass forms depicting animals, runners, benches, etc. have been painted and creatively designed by artists and installed in public places.

Locations (Litter #1):

- Sonnet - USC Lancaster
- Patches - Stevens Park in Kershaw
- Caroline Rose - Red Rose Park in Lancaster
- Huey - The Historic Springs House, Lancaster
- Skye - The Heath Springs Depot, Heath Springs
- Orion - Wylie Street Pool, Lancaster
- Alpha - Del Webb Library, Indian Land
- Fetch - Andrew Jackson State Park
- Jacket - Van Wyck Community Center
- Judge - Lancaster County Administration Building

At each location, you will find a plaque with the name of each dog, the artist, and a QR code that takes you to a bio about the dog with a quick survey. Please complete the survey and take a selfie or two and tag us!

We hope that you enjoy seeing and learning as you travel with our Paws on Parade in Lancaster County, SC. Watch for more details on the installation of litter #2 of dogs and even some feline friends.
